RSVP Impact Programs
Directly enhancing the lives of community members
Programs have been adapted to COVID safety protocols and are now virtual

Children & Youth
Family Literacy. Read books online to Head Start preschoolers to help develop their reading skills and prepare them for learning.

America Reads. Be a supportive reading coach and help K-4 students to read with more confidence.

Youth Mentoring. Provide support and guidance to encourage positive behavior, resulting in greater academic and life success.

Virtual Classroom Assistant. Volunteers assist teachers and students in virtual classrooms.

STEM Career Presentations. Professionals with STEM careers inspire students through recorded presentations.

Virtual Tutoring/Learning
My Free Tutor. Volunteers work with elementary through high school students to improve math proficiency via online tutoring.

Math Tutoring for Veterans. Volunteers help to improve math skills of veterans to prepare them to enter college and the workforce.

Adults and Seniors
Helping Seniors at Home. Provide seniors with shopping support and check in by phone to help ease isolation.

Senior Technology Training. Provide online training for older adults to use email, the internet, Zoom and social media so they can connect with family and friends.

Medicare Counseling. APPRISE is a public program of the PA Dept. of Aging. State trained counselors offer advice on Medicare coverage, options and assistance programs.

Nonprofit Agencies
Volunteer Executive Consultants. VEC volunteers are business professionals who help build the management capacity of nonprofits in the region.

Corporate Partnerships
RSVP engages corporate partners through virtually adapted programs in order to respond to the needs of students, families and teachers in our area. Opportunities include reading to students during a weekly 30-minute online session, virtually tutoring students in math, recording STEM career presentations, becoming a one-on-one virtual mentor and so much more. Projects are customized and integrate corporate goals and initiatives.

RSVP is certified as an Educational Improvement Organization. Corporations may qualify for an EITC tax credit by partnering with RSVP.
